In this, I have described a mother, completely different to the one that I have in reality, just like the situation that I have taken up to be described. It was my dream to make a satire-comedy upon Justices. I myself want to become a Judge someday. Hence, the views expressed herein are strictly for entertainment purposes and not to be taken seriously. I hope that the readers will enjoy this short novel and have an altogether different perspective about the way Judges appear to them.
